

GOOD RACES HELD AT CAPITAL TRACK

Vielle Takes the Officers' Army Service Cup, With Dan Second.

MANY FAVORITES LOSE AND BOOKS COIN MONEY

Royal Lady, at 10 to 1, Comes Rumping Home in the Benning Spring Handicap, With Smoker, at 2 to 1, Second.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—The second Benning spring handicap—the Officers' Army Service Cup and the Benning Spring Handicap—were the special features of an excellent program offered by the Washington Jockey Club this afternoon. In all cases the races were well run. Also the favorites lost and the books coined money on them. The Virginia crowd cashed handsomely when Theodore Gales (C) won the first race at 2-1 to 1, but they dropped it again when they played Courtland Smith's entry, Pete Dalley and My Grace, in the steeplechase. The Chelmsford Stables' recruit, second choice at 8 to 5, won easily, with Mr. Chelmsford's Ardwell, a long shot, second. Courtland Smith, on Pete Dalley, finished third. J. J. O'Brien could not find My Grace in the money.

Jimmy McLaughlin's Old Gray, Oxford was a 7 to 5 favorite in the Benning Handicap, but was not a contender after the stretch was reached. Roxy Ankarola's Royal Lady, well played at 10 to 1, led all the way, with Frank R. Hirsch's Smoker second, and A. D. Parr's Gales third. Berkeley, Banyan, Bellweather and Orocium were scratched. Lieutenant B. S. Merchant, of the Thirteenth Cavalry, slipped over a good thing in the army race with his mare, Vielle, by Fatherless, out of Virginia. Captain E. B. Phillips, of the same regiment, sent two, post, Bright and Pickett, and they were favorites. Pickett led for three-quarters of a mile, but Lieutenant Merchant sent Vielle after him when he got ready, and won easily, with Captain E. B. Phillips, Dan Fisher second, and Pickett third.

Weather clear; track good. First race—selling, three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs—Columbia course—Clements (13 to 1) first, Beggarman (5 to 2) second, Amontillado (3 to 1) show third. Time, 1:23.2.

Second race—maiden, fillies and geldings, half mile, old course—Cheek (6 to 5) first, Trappe (2 to 1) second, Amontillado (3 to 1) show third. Time, 1:23.5.

Third race—maiden colts, four and one-half furlongs, old course—Schlesinger (5 to 1) first, Claborn (6 to 2) second, Demetrius (5 to 1) show third. Time, 1:23.5.

Fourth race—second running of the Benning Spring Handicap, three-year-olds and up, $1,500 added, seven furlongs, Columbia course—Royal Lady (10 to 1) first, Smoker (2 to 1) second, Gales (5 to 1) show third. Time, 1:23.5.

Fifth race—the Officers' Army Service Cup, mile and a half, old course, Pickett (out, show) third. Time, 1:53.5.

Sixth race—the ninth Spring Hunters' Steeplechase, about two and one-half miles—Recruit (7 to 1) first, and Well Ardwell (7 to 1) second, Pete Dalley (out, show) third. Time, 5:21.2.

Seventh race—selling, three-year-olds and up, one mile and forty yards, Columbia course—Killercrankie (3 to 1) first, Claborn (6 to 2) second, Delphi (out, show) third. Time, 1:48.

FARMERS DEFEAT WAKE FOREST NINE

WAKE FOREST, N. C., April 11.—In the presence of a large and enthusiastic crowd Wake Forest by a streak of bad luck lost to A. and M. in a beautiful game. With two hits in the first inning the Baptists scored two men and everything seemed favorable. Luck was changed in the third, when A. and M. scored two men on a wild throw. In this inning the game was won, and the score in the remaining six innings. The work of Sexton's box for A. and M. and Temple, for Wake Forest, was excellent, both men doing splendid work.

The features of the game were Hammond's two-bagger, double play by Couch to Josey and by Perkins to Josey, and to Couch by Perkins in right field for Wake Forest; Sexton's pitching, Fox's three-bagger and the work of Fox on first, for the Farmers. The line-up:

A. and M.—Fox, first base; Perkins, second base; Sexton, pitcher; Siefert, shortstop; Farmer, third base; Blinn, left field; Couch, center field; Harris, right field; Thompson, catcher. The score:

Wake Forest 2 3 3
A. and M. 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 2 3
Summary: Struck out—Temple, 4; by Sexton, 11. Base on balls, 1. Hit by pitcher, 1. Umpire, Caddett. Time, 1:15.

S. A. L. LEAGUE.

MACON, GA., April 11.—The poor work of Centre Fielder Coles was responsible for at least two of the locals' runs, the third and winning tally being scored in the ninth, when Stinson singled to centre with two on base.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Macon 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 2 3 4
Augusta 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 2 3
Batteries—Stowers and Shen; McKnight and Carson. Umpire, Bailey. Time, 1:40.

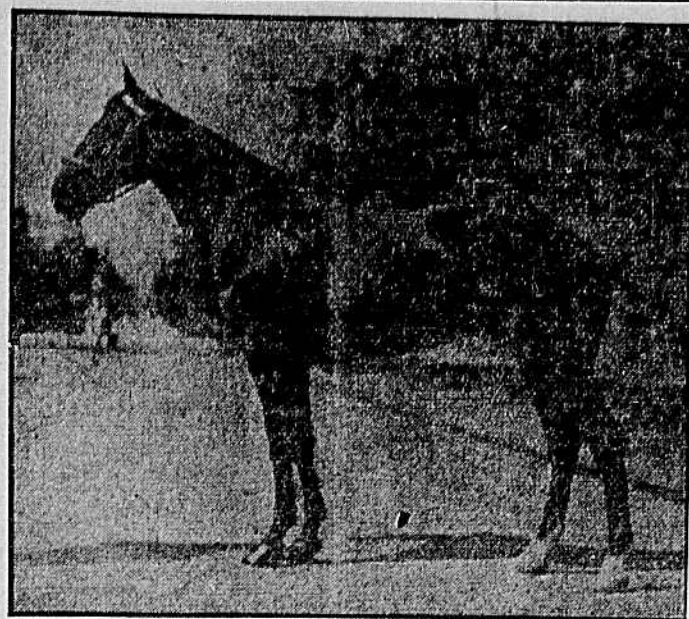

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 11.—Jacksonville outlived the locals to-day, and also felled better, Hansen was steady as a rock in pinches and was well supported.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Jacksonville 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 2 4 10 0
Columbia 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 5 4
Batteries—Hansen and Roth; Weisner and Harsh. Time, two hours. Umpire, Goodhart.

SAVANNAH, GA., April 11.—The Savannah team made it three straight by taking taking the last game from Charleston.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Savannah 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 3 6 2
Charleston 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 2 5 2
Batteries—Hill and Kahloff; Routh and Rosinger. Time, 1:42. Umpire, Truby.

WILL APPEAR AT MEET

MR. GEORGE C. GREGORY'S HANOVER.

VIRGINIA SHOW A GALA AFFAIR

Rapidly the final details for the fourteenth annual meet of the Deep Run Hunt Club for May 14th, 15th and 16th at the State Fair Grounds are being perfected, and entries from all parts of the State continue to pour in. Present indications promise one of the most brilliant congresses ever held in the State by horsemen, and Virginia's finest animals will be seen in harness and saddle.

The prize lists are out, showing the program that has been arranged. The horse show feature will have seven classes for ponies, saddle and harness horses, and nine for hunters. All will be well filled, particularly the jumping contests, for the best cross-country horses of the State are now being ridden to the hounds of the Deep Run, Riverside, Tomahawk, Blue Run, Keswick and Castle Hill Hunt Clubs, which will send their crack hunters to this show of Virginia horses. The Corinthian and hunt team classes, in their brilliant costumes, will be the most spectacular. It is expected that more hunt teams will be here than have ever been at any Virginia show.

Richmond has more handsome harness horses than any other city of its size in the East, and the owners are already beginning to shape them up for the occasion. In the pony class, to be ridden by a child under fifteen, the first prize is a handsome silver cup. This will bring out many future cross-country riders of boys and girls, and in this class will be seen Master Hampton Ellington, on Princess; Master Dabney Crenshaw, on Nellie; Master Buford Scott, on Kris; Master Clifford Pemberton, on Jack Shepherd; Master Frank Pemberton, on Tony; Master Randolph Harrison, on Bessie; Master Clifford Harrison, on Nancy Lee, and many other young "knights of the pigskin."

In addition to the horse show there will be two flat races and a steeplechase each day. The steeplechase course at the Fair Grounds is one of the best, and many of the fine "timber toppers" from Benning and Pinhook Run Hunt Club for May 14th, 15th and 16th at the State Fair Grounds are being perfected, and entries from all parts of the State continue to pour in.

Present indications promise one of the most brilliant congresses ever held in the State by horsemen, and Virginia's finest animals will be seen in harness and saddle.

The prize lists are out, showing the program that has been arranged. The horse show feature will have seven classes for ponies, saddle and harness horses, and nine for hunters. All will be well filled, particularly the jumping contests, for the best cross-country horses of the State are now being ridden to the hounds of the Deep Run, Riverside, Tomahawk, Blue Run, Keswick and Castle Hill Hunt Clubs, which will send their crack hunters to this show of Virginia horses.

The Corinthian and hunt team classes, in their brilliant costumes, will be the most spectacular. It is expected that more hunt teams will be here than have ever been at any Virginia show.

Richmond has more handsome harness horses than any other city of its size in the East, and the owners are already beginning to shape them up for the occasion. In the pony class, to be ridden by a child under fifteen, the first prize is a handsome silver cup.

This will bring out many future cross-country riders of boys and girls, and in this class will be seen Master Hampton Ellington, on Princess; Master Dabney Crenshaw, on Nellie; Master Buford Scott, on Kris; Master Clifford Pemberton, on Jack Shepherd; Master Frank Pemberton, on Tony; Master Randolph Harrison, on Bessie; Master Clifford Harrison, on Nancy Lee, and many other young "knights of the pigskin."

In addition to the horse show there will be two flat races and a steeplechase each day. The steeplechase course at the Fair Grounds is one of the best, and many of the fine "timber toppers" from Benning and Pinhook Run Hunt Club for May 14th, 15th and 16th at the State Fair Grounds are being perfected, and entries from all parts of the State continue to pour in.

Present indications promise one of the most brilliant congresses ever held in the State by horsemen, and Virginia's finest animals will be seen in harness and saddle.

The prize lists are out, showing the program that has been arranged. The horse show feature will have seven classes for ponies, saddle and harness horses, and nine for hunters. All will be well filled, particularly the jumping contests, for the best cross-country horses of the State are now being ridden to the hounds of the Deep Run, Riverside, Tomahawk, Blue Run, Keswick and Castle Hill Hunt Clubs, which will send their crack hunters to this show of Virginia horses.

The Corinthian and hunt team classes, in their brilliant costumes, will be the most spectacular. It is expected that more hunt teams will be here than have ever been at any Virginia show.

Richmond has more handsome harness horses than any other city of its size in the East, and the owners are already beginning to shape them up for the occasion. In the pony class, to be ridden by a child under fifteen, the first prize is a handsome silver cup.

This will bring out many future cross-country riders of boys and girls, and in this class will be seen Master Hampton Ellington, on Princess; Master Dabney Crenshaw, on Nellie; Master Buford Scott, on Kris; Master Clifford Pemberton, on Jack Shepherd; Master Frank Pemberton, on Tony; Master Randolph Harrison, on Bessie; Master Clifford Harrison, on Nancy Lee, and many other young "knights of the pigskin."

In addition to the horse show there will be two flat races and a steeplechase each day. The steeplechase course at the Fair Grounds is one of the best, and many of the fine "timber toppers" from Benning and Pinhook Run Hunt Club for May 14th, 15th and 16th at the State Fair Grounds are being perfected, and entries from all parts of the State continue to pour in.

Present indications promise one of the most brilliant congresses ever held in the State by horsemen, and Virginia's finest animals will be seen in harness and saddle.

The prize lists are out, showing the program that has been arranged. The horse show feature will have seven classes for ponies, saddle and harness horses, and nine for hunters. All will be well filled, particularly the jumping contests, for the best cross-country horses of the State are now being ridden to the hounds of the Deep Run, Riverside, Tomahawk, Blue Run, Keswick and Castle Hill Hunt Clubs, which will send their crack hunters to this show of Virginia horses.

The Corinthian and hunt team classes, in their brilliant costumes, will be the most spectacular. It is expected that more hunt teams will be here than have ever been at any Virginia show.

Richmond has more handsome harness horses than any other city of its size in the East, and the owners are already beginning to shape them up for the occasion. In the pony class, to be ridden by a child under fifteen, the first prize is a handsome silver cup.

This will bring out many future cross-country riders of boys and girls, and in this class will be seen Master Hampton Ellington, on Princess; Master Dabney Crenshaw, on Nellie; Master Buford Scott, on Kris; Master Clifford Pemberton, on Jack Shepherd; Master Frank Pemberton, on Tony; Master Randolph Harrison, on Bessie; Master Clifford Harrison, on Nancy Lee, and many other young "knights of the pigskin."

In addition to the horse show there will be two flat races and a steeplechase each day. The steeplechase course at the Fair Grounds is one of the best, and many of the fine "timber toppers" from Benning and Pinhook Run Hunt Club for May 14th, 15th and 16th at the State Fair Grounds are being perfected, and entries from all parts of the State continue to pour in.

Present indications promise one of the most brilliant congresses ever held in the State by horsemen, and Virginia's finest animals will be seen in harness and saddle.

The prize lists are out, showing the program that has been arranged. The horse show feature will have seven classes for ponies, saddle and harness horses, and nine for hunters. All will be well filled, particularly the jumping contests, for the best cross-country horses of the State are now being ridden to the hounds of the Deep Run, Riverside, Tomahawk, Blue Run, Keswick and Castle Hill Hunt Clubs, which will send their crack hunters to this show of Virginia horses.

The Corinthian and hunt team classes, in their brilliant costumes, will be the most spectacular. It is expected that more hunt teams will be here than have ever been at any Virginia show.

Richmond has more handsome harness horses than any other city of its size in the East, and the owners are already beginning to shape them up for the occasion. In the pony class, to be ridden by a child under fifteen, the first prize is a handsome silver cup.

This will bring out many future cross-country riders of boys and girls, and in this class will be seen Master Hampton Ellington, on Princess; Master Dabney Crenshaw, on Nellie; Master Buford Scott, on Kris; Master Clifford Pemberton, on Jack Shepherd; Master Frank Pemberton, on Tony; Master Randolph Harrison, on Bessie; Master Clifford Harrison, on Nancy Lee, and many other young "knights of the pigskin."

In addition to the horse show there will be two flat races and a steeplechase each day. The steeplechase course at the Fair Grounds is one of the best, and many of the fine "timber toppers" from Benning and Pinhook Run Hunt Club for May 14th, 15th and 16th at the State Fair Grounds are being perfected, and entries from all parts of the State continue to pour in.

$150 to first; $75 to second; $25 to third. Weights as follows: Four-year-olds, 115 pounds; five-year-olds, 155 pounds; six-year-olds, 165 pounds; allowance to mares and geldings. Winner of open steeplechase on first day to carry ten pounds extra.

Third race—Three-fourths mile; purse, $200. $150 to first; $50 to second; $25 to third. Open to all to carry ten pounds under the scale; allowance for mares and geldings. Winners of one race at this meet to carry five pounds extra, two races eight pounds extra.

In the horse show, all horses that have won blue ribbons outside the State of Virginia are eligible only to handicaps and championship classes. The entry list is as follows:

Horses in Harness.

Class 1—Best horse, suitable for park, to be shown in heavy harness.

Class 2—Best pair of matched horses, to be shown to suitable vehicles; mare and gelding may constitute a pair.

Horse and Runabout.

Class 3—Horse, to be shown before a four-wheel vehicle; horse to be judged on conformation, manners and pace.

Ponies Under Saddle.

Class 4—For ponies 12.2 hands and under, to be ridden by a child not over fifteen years of age; must be owned by resident of Virginia.

Entrance fee, $2.

Roadsters.

(To be judged by their manners, conformation, speed and style of going.)

Class 5—Best mare or gelding, to be shown to four-wheel vehicle. Horses in this class should have long tails.

Combination Harness and Saddle Horses.

Class 6—Horses 15 hands or over, suitable for use in harness and under saddle; to be shown to vehicle first; unharnessed in the ring and shown under saddle.

Park Saddle.

Class 7—Must walk, trot, canter and stand quietly to mount and dismount, back and come forward to position.

Green Hunters.

Class 8—For horses that have never won a blue ribbon prior to 1908 in a jumping contest; conformation to count 40 per cent; performance over jumps not to exceed four feet, to count 60 per cent.

Middle and Heavyweight Hunters.

Class 9—For horses up to carrying 175 pounds over jumps not to exceed 4-1-2 feet; performance and manners, 75 per cent; conformation to count 25 per cent. Horses entered in this class not eligible to Class 10.

Lightweight Hunters.

Class 10—For horses up to carrying 155 pounds, over jumps not to exceed 4-1-2 feet; conformation to count 25 per cent; performance and manners, 75 per cent. Horses entered in this class not eligible to Class 9.

Hunters and Jumpers.

(For horses owned by members of Deep Run or Riverside Hunt Clubs.)

Handicap Jump.

(Open to all horses.)

Class 12—Green hunters, horses that have never won a blue ribbon in a jumping contest, to jump four feet; horses that have won a blue ribbon in a recognized show, four and a half feet; horses that have won a championship, five feet; and horses that have won a high jump, five feet two inches. Performance only to count.

Corinthian Class.

Class 13—Horses to be ridden by a member of an organized hunt club, in hunting clothes, to carry ten pounds over fences, 75 per cent; conformation, 25 per cent; two jumps, four feet; two jumps, four and a half feet.

Hunting Class.

Class 14—For the best pair of hunters, to be ridden over the regulation jumps abreast. Performance and style of going only to be counted.

Hunt Club Team.

Class 15—Hunt club teams of three hunters from any club, each horse to be ridden by a member or huntsman or whip of their respective hunts, in hunting clothes. Conformation and quality to count 75 per cent; performance over fences, 60 per cent; appointments, 15 per cent.

Champion Hunters.

Class 16—Open to all horses having taken a first prize in the hunter or jumping classes at this or any recognized show. Conformation, 25 per cent; performance over eight jumps, four feet six inches to count, 75 per cent.

Prizes for Classes 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13 and 14 will be $55, $15, $5 and a ribbon for first, second, third and fourth.

Prizes for Class 1 will be $30, $15, $5 and a ribbon.

A cup and three ribbons go with Class 4 with Class 11.

Class 15 takes $40, $20, $10 and a ribbon.

In the sixteenth class first gets $40 and second the reserve ribbon.

Entries close on May 6th.

The Deep Run Hunt meet at the kennels at 4:30 P. M. yesterday, and rode to hounds over their longest and stiffest course. The first to cast, was made in the Ginter property just north of Brook Turnpike, and the hounds finding readily went at a rattling clip through Wingfield's Grants and Warwick's to Brook Road for a check. They were then taken to Yellow Tavern, and the run was through Darracut's, Lakeside, Bloomingdale, Mordecai's, to the club house.

The hounds were hunted by Mr. Bryan, and did beautiful work. All conditions were favorable, ideal weather and excellent going, and nearly all the riders in "pink." All jumps were well negotiated, and the hunt reached Darracut's back yard, where the stiff plank fence caused a decided check. Mr. Harris on Lilla and Mr. Laidley on G. Hobart, Jr. were the ones that did not have a refusal. After several trials on the part of some and a convenient gate for others, it continued without further interruption.

Those riding to hounds were: Mr. St. George Bryan, M. F. H., on Benvolio; Huntsman Ed. H. on Allen; Brock; and W. O. Young, on Red Hussar. Mr. James W. Graves, on Three Spot; Mr. George C. Gregory, on Major Bradford; Mr. E. W. Gentry, on Lord; Dr. R. C. Bryan, on Moonlight; Dr. J. A. White, on Iron Prince; Mr. M. De G. Hobson, on Grandee, and Mr. Frank Vaughan, on Lady Hanover.

The recreation at the club house after the hunt was largely attended. Amongst those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hardwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. F. Forbes, Mrs. W. F. Palmer, Jr. and Mrs. Stewart Hume, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Vaughan, Misses Hattie Ross, Maude Morgan, Mary Helme and Hattie Shields.

GOULD SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS TENNIS TITLE

NEW YORK, April 11.—Jay Gould successfully defended his title for the third year as national champion of tennis at the New York Racquet and Tennis Club to-day. His opponent in the challenge round was Eustace H. Miles, of London, whom Gould beat last year at the Queen's Club, London, in the challenge round of the British court tennis championship.

Although Gould had the better floor game, Miles continued to drive for the winning openings. He scored 33 points by the opening of the match, Gould won the first set by 3 sets to 1; 15 games to 15. The scores were 6-2, 6-4, 1-6, 6-2.

The result was not unexpected by the American players of court tennis, and Gould was the favorite in the betting. The latter now says he may go abroad to defend his British title in May.

Supreme from Any Point of View. This Great Boys' Store!

The Big Store's great department devoted entirely to the appareling of youths, boys and children, must impress every visitor with its superior facilities for the outfitting of the younger generation. A magnificent aggregation of newest Spring Fashion, by many times larger than that of any other place, commands admiration for the satisfaction afforded in selection—the exclusiveness of styles, completeness of lines and undeniable matchless values, clinch every argument of supremacy from any viewpoint.

The incontestable truth of these statements finds eloquent proof in the many attractions and special offerings provided.

Boys' Double-Breasted Suits, $1.98.

Double Breasted Suits of excellent wearing Tweeds and Cassimeres, in pretty effect light or dark plaids and mixtures; all sizes to seventeen years and good $3.00 values; special for Monday $1.98

Boys' $4.50 Norfolk Suits, $3.40.

Boys' Fashionable Norfolk Suits, with Knickerbocker Trousers, in big variety brown or gray effect plaids, stripes and mixtures; newest models, splendidly tailored; $4.50 value, special for Monday $3.40

Boys' Blue Serge Suits, $3.40.

Boys' Blue Serge Double Breasted Suits, in all sizes to seventeen years; made from strictly pure wool dark navy blue serge, of warranted color; superbly tailored, sewn throughout with silk; undeniably $5 value, special only $3.40

Children's $5.00 Novelty Suits, $3.95.

Children's High Class Novelty Suits, Russian or Sailor Blouse styles, in big assortment of blue serges or fancy fabrics; newest models, richly trimmed and finished; unsurpassed $5.00 value, special only $3.95

Boys' $4.00 Double-Breasted Suits, $2.90.

Boys' Double Breasted Suits of strictly pure wool Cassimeres and Tweeds, in a wide range of neat effects of fancy plaids and stripes; superbly tailored and equal to suits priced at $4.00 at most places; special only $2.90

In Boys' and Children's High-Class Apparel

our displays are simply magnificent and assortment practically inexhaustible. Style upon style of Norfolk Suits in box plaid, yoke or plain double breasted fashions, with belt; style upon style of many double breasted suits, with plain bottom Trousers; style upon style of little fellows' novelty suits in Russian or Sailor Blouse styles, in richest fancy pattern Worsteds, Cassimeres, Tweeds and Cheviot, as well as solid navy blue, brown, tan or royal serges—every garment a gem of juvenile fashion, and unmatchable in value, at $10.00, $9.00, $8.00, $7.50, $6.50, $6.00 and $5.00.

Burk & Company, 1003 East Main Street.

VIRGINIA DROPS FIRST OF SERIES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 11.—The game continued here, winning streak by defeating Virginia to-day, 3 to 2. The Blue and Gray nine put up the better game, both in the field and at bat, and we deserved the victory. Schlaty counted on a fielder's choice, and Eckenrode raced home while Honaker was trying to catch Diamond going down to second, after Moss had been thrown out at first by Susong.

Georgetown. R. H. O. A. E.
Mess, 2b..... 0 0 1 0 0
Courtney, 1b..... 0 0 1 1 0
Simon, 3f..... 0 0 1 1 0
MacDonald, 1b..... 0 1 0 1 0
Hoff, 3b..... 0 0 1 1 0
Hume, 1f..... 0 0 1 1 0
Cavaniss, rf..... 0 0 1 1 0
Maycock, 2b..... 0 0 1 1 0
Eckenrode, c..... 0 0 1 1 0
Diamond, p..... 0 0 1 1 0

Totals 3 6 27 12 3

Summary: Left on bases—Georgetown, 4; Virginia, 2. Two-base hit—Schlaty. Struck out—by Diamond, 2; by Susong, 10. First base on balls—off Diamond, 4; off Susong, 2. Double play—Susong, to Courtney, to Sacrifice. Simon hit by pitched balls—Hoff, Mad-dux. Passed ball—Pearson. Stolen base—Mess. Umpire—Mr. Hoffner. Time, 2:00.

Other Games.

At Ithaca: Cornell, 9; Colgate, 0.
At Atlanta: Georgia School of Technology, 6; Trinity College (N. C.), 5.
At Cambridge: University of Vermont, 9; Harvard, 5.
At West Point: West Point, 3; Union, 1.
At Princeton: Princeton, 10; Holy Cross, 5.
At Philadelphia: Pennsylvania, 5; Lafayette, 4.
At Philadelphia (Intercity): American National, 0.
At Annapolis: Navy, 1; Bucknell, 0.
At Providence: Massachusetts Agricultural College, 6; Brown, 3.
At Cambridge: University of Vermont, 9; Harvard, 5.
At West Point: West Point, 3; Union, 1.
At Middletown: Wesleyan, 11; Rutgers, 2.

Central School Victors.

The Central School baseball nine yesterday defeated the Howitzers by the score of 17 to 2. The feature of the game was the batting of Dunn, of Central School, who got a single, two-base, three-base and a home run. For Howitzers the batting of Poe was of the first-class.

Central School line-up: Vaughan, 1; Lloyd, c; Oravau, p; Rogerson, 3; Oppenheimer, 1b; Harwood, 2b; Dunn, 3b; Gentry, rf; Moss, cf; Wingfield, lf. Battery for Howitzers: F. Rowe and Poe.

Snowed Under.

McGuire, Jr., team defeated the Riego High School yesterday by the overwhelming score of 16 to 3. The game was played at "Duntreath," the country home of Captain Samuel Register.

GREEN SEAL TAKES THE RAILWAY RACE

NEW ORLEANS, LA., April 11.—Winter racing ended here to-day with the last day of the Fair Grounds meeting. The closing feature to-day was the New Orleans City Railway Handicap, a 1,000 yard school